

2010 Silverwood School Auction

Lights, Camera, Auction!

The Silverwood School annual auction is made possible by the volunteers who work many hours before, during, and after the event to make the evening a lively and entertaining night of fun and a successful fundraiser for our Silverwood children. Listed below are the wonderful volunteers working to make the 2010 Lights, Camera, Auction! a stellar success. If you have a question about the 2010 auction or would like to become involved with this terrific group of volunteers, contact the front office or talk to one of the people on this list.
